All plans for the regatta were made at an enthusiastic meeting on Tuesday night of last week and the program and committees printed this week and distributed along the Coast.

The program includes nine races, as follows: 21 footers, Marconi rig; 21 footers, Gaff rig; International Star Boats; Sloops, under 18 feet rating; and five for cat boats as follows: 19.5 to 21.4 rating, inclusive; 18 to 19.5 rating; 16 to 18 rating; 14 to 16 rating; 14 foot rating and under.

ALL READY FOR MOTOR RACES 15TH.

Second of Season's Races Outboard Motor Boats Attracts Wide Attention.

The second of a series of outboard motor races sponsored by Breath and Cue, agents for Johnson outboard motors, will be held in Bay St. Louis Sunday, July 15, in the excellent two and a half mile course north of the Bay of St. Louis traffic bridge. At similar races held in the Bay some weeks ago a very large crowd of spectators from all parts of the Coast were present and an even larger number of visitors are expected for the races Sunday.

The feature and third race Sunday will be for the unlimited race, or free-for-all, which will total 25 miles which means ten times around the stake. For this race three prizes will be awarded, trophies being donated by Gluck Restaurant of New Orleans, Bay Chevrolet Company of Bay St. Louis and Duvie Sons of New Orleans. The race was first announced as a 50-mile race but the distance has been halved at the request of racers who claim the longer distance was too great for the best sport.

The first race will be for class "B" motors which will be ten miles in length or four times around the stake. Two prizes will be given in this race, trophies having been donated by Bay Furniture Company of Bay St. Louis and Riviera Furniture Company of Biloxi.

The second race will be for class "C" motors, also four rounds of the course to be run. Two prizes will be given in this race, these donated by Gulfport Furniture Company of Gulfport and Newman Furniture Company of Biloxi.

The preparatory gun will be fired at 2 o'clock and the starting gun for the first race at 2:15 o'clock.

Inquiries and registration for boats will be received by Breath and Cue, Box 202, Bay St. Louis, and boats may enter until the time of the beginning of the races. There are no entrance fees.

Eight or ten new boats have recently been built for competition in the outboard races and many entries from all parts of the Coast are expected.

An interesting rule for the free-for-all race is that it will be compulsory for all drivers to make their motors come to a complete stop before refueling.

BAY ROTARY CLUB HAS DINNER DANCE AT CLERMONT INN

Dr. Richard Cox, of Gulf Park Speaker of Evening—Splendid Event.

Ninety guests sat at the banquet table of the Harbor Inn, at Clermont Harbor, Wednesday evening, the party composed of Bay St. Louis Rotarians, Rotarymen and invited guests in observance of Ladies' Night and also celebrating the annual event of installing officers.

President Jos. O. Mauffray, president of the Harbor Inn, introduced the newly elected officers, Vice-President C. C. McDonald, Treasurer Louis J. Norman, Secretary A. A. Scadiff, Sergeant-at-Arms Jay Hood, Song Leader Jas. A. Evans, also Mrs. H. U. Canty, pianist.

A feature was the presentation of three "past president" gold buttons, one each for Dr. C. M. Shipp, Dr. Jas. A. Evans and the other was given to Mrs. E. J. Leonard, widow of the club's first president. Each responded fittingly in words of acceptance.

Secretary Scadiff announced a stunt in which a prize chance would be given to the winner, a box of candy the award and given to Miss Edris Erwin.

Dr. Richard Cox, president of Gulf Park College, was fittingly introduced by President Mauffray, who spoke of the "Poetry of Life," contrasting the poetry with the prosaic, how necessary it was to play once in a while and how Rotary supplied the essential poetry, in addition to the prosaic of life.

The splendid menu and cuisine of Harbor Inn was a subject of general comment and Manager M. Lassauze was complimented for the excellence of everything and the manner in which the affair was handled.

Temple's Syncopators supplied orchestral music during the feast and for the dance that followed.

In all the affair was one of unusual pleasure and the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club again distinguished itself entertaining its friends in that manner most befitting.

HANCOCK BANK TO BE RENOVATED

Geary & Oakes Have Contract; Will Consume Month—New Interior Planned.

Extensive redecoration and repairs are being done at the Hancock County Bank under the direction of Geary & Oakes, general contractors for the work which it is estimated will cost between $3,000 and $4,000, one of the officials of the bank stated.

This work consists of laying solid concrete floors throughout the building. Some replastering will be done within the building on the walls and ceiling. The entire interior will be repainted and the exterior will be painted. The work began last week and it will be completed in about a month.

This work on the handsome Hancock County Bank building will add to its attractiveness, keeping it one of the finest buildings in the Bay, the first substantial business building of any consequence to be constructed in Bay St. Louis.

The Hancock County Bank, ever progressive and ever in step with the march of progress, allows no stone to remain unturned, on the contrary, while the actual business policy of this institution is safe and conservative, its management is aggressive and progressive.

Institutions of permanency and stability like the Hancock County Bank contribute to build city, county and State and it is always of interest to note business progress and success.

COURT HEARING BUS LINES TO BE HEARD IN BAY CITY

Motor Freight Lines to Hear State's Bill of Complaint On Monday Next

State of Mississippi interests continue active against the operating of freight bus lines over the Old Spanish Trail from New Orleans to Biloxi through Bay St. Louis, and at a hearing in Gulfport Monday of the hearing of the State versus Gulf Motor Freight Lines, Inc., New Orleans, the injunction suit was deferred until next Monday, with the trucks of the freight line resuming the service interrupted last Tuesday week by an order of Judge Ethridge of the State Supreme Court.

The state's bill of complaint will come before the chancery court of Hancock county at Bay St. Louis, where Chancellor Harvey McGehee of Clarksdale will preside in the absence of Chancellor Virgil A. Griffith of Gulfport, who is busy with his campaign for a vacant seat on the state supreme court bench.

The action of Sheriff Joseph W. Haverstick in Gulfport, no report was made of seizures of the Louisiana company's trucks since confiscation of a partially loaded vehicle last Thursday. The seized truck, held on a writ of attachment filed by the attorney general contemporaneously with the filing of the injunction suit last Tuesday, remains in a local garage. The sheriff's suggestion that opposing counsel provide some method for delivery of the freight contained in the truck had been without result, it was said.

No developments in the motor freight line fight is expected until after the Bay St. Louis hearing Monday, it was said at the office of Leathers and Sykes, Gulfport attorneys for the New Orleans company. Temple's Syncopators supplied against the freight lines was based on alleged failure of the company to secure a certificate of necessity and convenience and on its alleged violation of the state law limiting the weights of vehicles used on public highways.

Bagot of Pass Christian is in the King's Daughters Hospital, Gulfport, suffering from a wrenched back and two broken ribs, Albert Blacknell of the Pass is suffering from bruises and cuts about his body and face and was in the hospital for treatment, and Jos. Scooper of the Pass suffered bruises and cuts, as a result of an auto collision Monday morning about 6:30 o'clock at the intersection of Union street and Front street, Bay St. Louis, as these three men, employees of the A. B. Hayden, Inc., of Pass Christian, were enroute to their work of installing drainage back of the seawall at Waveland, had the Ford roadster in which they were riding and a Ford roadster driven by a negro, Eddie Plout, 19 years of age of the bay, collide. The negro failed to stop at the intersection of Union and Front streets as the traffic regulations require and the collision occurred, it was said.

BIENVILLE ROOF IS CENTER ATTRACTION FOR SUMMER SEASON

Popular Rendezvous in New Orleans for Residents and Out-of-Town Visitors

The new Bienville Hotel Roof Garden recently opened is very popular with New Orleans smart social set and out of town visitors.

High atop the hotel the cool breezes, the flickering lights, the view of the river, the perfect music by one of New Orleans best orchestras make it one of the most delightful and cool places to spend the summer evenings dancing and dining.

The large spacious floor, which is highly polished hardwood, extends nearly the whole width of the hotel roof. The roof is also glass enclosed so that inclement weather will in no way hinder social activities.

Now, for the first time, New Orleans has a really adequate dancing rendezvous—the new roof is large enough to accommodate from 250 to 300 guests, without the slightest congestion. The Roosevelt efficiency kitchen prepares cooling drinks, ices, salads and a regular table d'hôte dinner every evening.

The roof will continue to be the center of social activities, this summer both for dancing and dining at night and afternoon bridge luncheons. For bridge in the afternoon, the Bienville offers a special service—a cleverly prepared luncheon and then bridge games that continue all afternoon.

One could not find a more delightful place to entertain friends. There is always a breeze on the roof and the service and catering is faultless.

Besides the construction of the new Roof Garden the Bienville has been entirely renovated, redecorated, and nearly 100,000 feet of new carpeting has been laid at a cost of approximately $75,000. With these improvements and the rapidly increasing popularity the Bienville is looking forward to an active summer and fall season.

The Bienville is located on exclusive St. Charles Avenue, away from the noise and bustle of the business district, but convenient to all points of interest. New low summer rates are now in effect at the Bienville.

FIGURES FOR RIGOLETS SPANS ASKED FOR AUG. 14TH AT BATON ROUGE, LA.

La. Highway Department Announces Chef Menteur Bridge to Be Opened by January 1—Total Cost of Both Bridges Three-Quarters Million.

Bids for the construction of the super-structures of the Chef Menteur and the Rigolets bridges will be received by the Louisiana Highway Commission at 11 a. m. on August 14, it was announced by James M. Fournier, state highway engineer, says a press telegram from Baton Rouge.

Work on the Chef Menteur bridge superstructure is to be started in September. It is expected that the bridge will be opened by January 1, while work on the Rigolets bridge superstructure is to be started in April and it is expected that this bridge will be opened by August, 1929, according to Mr. Fournier.

The total cost for the bridges, allowing for an estimate made by N. E. Lant, bridge engineer of the commission, is a little less than $1,750,000, which is the amount Mr. Fournier said the bridges would cost previous to making the detailed surveys in the spring of 1927.

The bridges are located at about the point fixed by Mr. Fournier and Mr. Lant in the spring of 1927. The contracts for the superstructures to the bridges were awarded last summer to the Frederick Snare Corporation of New York. The Chef Menteur bridge substructure is now 72 per cent complete, two of the five piers being completed and work proceeding on the other three. The Rigolets contract is only about 25 per cent completed.

The Chef Menteur bridge will eliminate the free ferry which is now operated at that point. The ferry contract expires January 1 and when renewed will be for the Rigolets crossing only and will be only for the period until the opening of the Rigolets free bridge.

Estimate costs, including the 10 per cent for engineering and contingencies, of the various items in the two bridges follow: Chef Menteur superstructure, $210,855.51; Chef Menteur substructure, $494,295.03; Chef Menteur substructure, $366,755.44; Rigolets substructure, $672,093.93, a total of $1,744,035.99.

The substructure contracts which have already been awarded include 99 feet of approaches on each end of the Chef Menteur bridge, 129 feet of approach on the south and 223 feet on the north end of the Rigolets bridge. The approaches are being built of concrete.

The steel work on the Chef Menteur bridge will be 770 feet in length and 1,330,000 pounds of fabricated and 66,500 pounds of deformed reinforcing steel will be required for the bridge.

The Rigolets steel work will be 1600 feet in length in four spans. This bridge will require about 4,300,000 pounds of fabricated steel and 137,000 pounds of deformed reinforcing steel.

The roadways will be 20 feet in width and will be constructed of concrete covered with asphalt.

POWERFUL DREDGE COMES TO BAY CITY FOR SEAWALL FILL

"Mildred," of St. Petersburg Fla., to Pump at Waveland and Jordan River

An auxiliary cruiser, the "Mildred," of St. Petersburg, Fla., captained by H. Carpenter and with Chas. Knell as mate, was brought to Bay St. Louis early this week by the Coastal Construction Company to tow the large dredge boat now in service at Waveland northward through the railroad area, traffic draw bridges and up the Bay to Jordan River, where it will be anchored to dig sand and pump it in behind the seawall, making the fill such as the big digger has been doing at Waveland.

The dredge will be moved the latter part of this week, it was said. Later the second dredge now at work at Waveland filling in the seawall will be towed by the Mildred to Ocean Springs to fill behind the seawall there. It will be about three weeks before the second dredge will be moved, it was said.

The Mildred made the trip from St. Petersburg in about two weeks, the captain putting in to land for harbor each night, these nightly stops being necessitated because the waters navigated were unsafe for the captain and were dangerous.

Captain Carpenter and Mate Knell brought the Mildred from New York City to St. Petersburg five years ago. The boat is 32 x 12 feet. It was used by the Coastal Construction Company for towing the dredges while they worked in Florida waters.

This boat was recently constructed for Mr. Breath here in the Bay and is of solid mahogany.

Harris of the Pearl River County Bank of Picayune will be present and make a talk. Several citizens of the community are on the program for discussion of community problems. which has been proven in polar flights, predicts that a flight around the world in two days will soon be possible. On such a flight at Paris at daylight one morning, flying westward, it would be possible to keep one jump ahead of darkness, and only a few minutes of twilight would be encountered. Capt. Wilkins is not talking through his hat when he says this only awaits will not go out of business. The railway magnates transported in an American city under the guns of armed guards. This happened last week in New York where eighty-eight thin volumes, worth $420,000 were transferred to the Harvard University library as a gift from the heirs of William A. White. They were necessary to fill out the collection of Shakespearean volumes.These books, worth their estimated value, cannot be reproduced or duplicated. Yet the thought comes, that every man in Bay St. Louis can obtain, for a few cents, copies of these great works and by mastering them make full use of their contents. Today, as never be-if he will take the time to do it. There is no excuse for happens to read this article, should resolve to make a study of at least one great book every month. We do not mean a sloppy, careless, worthless reading but a concise effort to "get" what the author has to say.

Then, for amusement, take a pick of the current offerings of the publishers, or, for real knowledge select a modern work on some great subject. Make the book your own in a sense of winning for yourself the fruitful discussion and abundant information to be found.HOW MUCH TIME DO YOU GIVE TO HELPING BAY ST. LOUIS?Someone, who has been in public life a great deal, has said that every citizen should give at least one fourth of his life to public service.We wonder how many of the citizens of Bay St.
Louis have ever thought of this, and we also wonder how many of them, if they have thought of it, have qualified.A town grows to be a city, only so fast as the citizens of that town desire it to become a city. Everything that grows does so only by cultivation, if it is to be worth anything. The same holds good with regard to a city and a town. If the citizens of Bay St. Louis really want this town to grow and prosper it is up to no one else in the world save the folks who live here.Cultivate a closer interest in what is going on around you. When there is a public service to be performed and you have been selected to do that particular job, hop to it with all your energy and put the thing across in fine style. The next time you are called upon, you will be surprised to find how easy the second task is and so on and on.First of all, get acquainted with what is going on around you. Familiarize yourself with what the various clubs and organizations are undertaking, get in touch with the plans for progress outlined by the officials of the community and then find out what the town has to offer, both in natural resources, and what the manufacturers here are making and selling and what the stores and business houses have to offer. A little study along this line will really surprise you. In fact, you will find that there are a great many things which can be obtained here in Bay St. Louis which heretofore you were under the impression must be ordered from some other larger city. After you have discovered these facts, then make it a part of your public duty to buy everything here that can possibly be obtained in Bay St. Louis. This will mean that the business interests here will prosper, and as they prosper you will indirectly prosper.WHAT PRICE GLORY.Flying high is the popular past time. Flying from continent to continent, from pole to pole and from point to point over long distances continues in increasing frenzy, apparently regardless of safety of life and other subsequent results. Aside from those who would seek fame and even popularity, we are told much of this hazardous and perilous undertaking is in the name of science, of which we would not dispute, and by no means cast aspersions on the names of those who have lost and others who have won, nor disparage their courage.The tendency of flying high, paradoxical as it may appear, is all too frequent and too common with those who "lay low." Columns of the daily press tell the story of a different kind of tragedy. The gamut of formal dissipation knows no limitation. Men of trusted position become defaulters, absconders and innocent dependents only too often are the final victims to suffer. Men who fly high fail to meet financial and other obligations, stepping stones to moral tergiteude and finally to utter dissolution.Night clubs, fine clothes, high-priced automobiles and in a constant endeavor to shine, if not to outshine, other men and women, by those who cannot afford it are dangerous rocks along the pathway. Flying high is a dangerous pitfall. A church authority was quoted the other day as saying the age of jazz was fast fleeing and a sane period and back to conservatism was setting in. The greatest menace to all appears trying to outshine others and to possess those things one cannot afford.

It is well the fool who travels at this pace.

TRUTH IN ADVERTISING.We hasten to commend the movement initiated by the Federal Trade Commission looking towards the elimination of fraudulent advertising from the newspapers of the nation. Last week at a preliminary meeting, it was decided to send circulars to more than 6,000 publishers and advertisers asking them to be represented at a meeting to be held this fall.Some publishers have already gone to notable lengths in attempting to protect their readers. Notable in this line is the New York Times and the Saturday Evening Post. Other publishers should cheerfully fall in step with this great movement. There is entirely too much fake, fraudulent and hokum advertising.An example of one kind of cheap stuff palmed off on newspaper readers is furnished by the publishers themselves, many of whom buy from syndicate articles, alleged to be written by athletic stars, when as a matter of truth the celebrity never sees the copy, which is prepared by an expert writer. As an example in point, consider Jack Dempsey, who, on the stand in the suit of Kearns, admitted that he sold to a syndicate the right to sign his name under any article for a period of years.That kind of chakinery should not be encouraged by newspaper publishers who expect to censor advertising.
No newspaper should knowingly print such a fraud.
If some of the mhave to do it to meet competition
some way should be found to protect publishers as well as the public.A PLEA FOR THE TREE.Of more than passing attraction is the beauty of the Mississippi Gulf Coast, the American Riviera. While the European Riviera is called in French "Cote Azur," (Azure Coast), ours has not infrequently been called the "Cote Brillante," and with that incomparable green setting of eternal oaks that fringe the water line, the term "Emerald Coast" has been accepted, coming from the pen of a real poet.Our oaks are an asset of inestimable value, and other trees and less majestic verdure of the year-round variety give charm and value. We cannot regard our oaks and other trees with too much emphasis. A society for the preservation of trees would not be amiss.
"Woodman, Spare That Tree," a gem from our grade reader ever lingers, and the classic lines from Kilmer serve as a lasting sermon.

Save the trees, by all means.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS.Just when a few cynics had given expression the demand for hotels on the Mississippi Gulf Coast had been surfeited and there was a dearth of patronage, because, it was alleged, everything had gone to the bow-wows and was headed for wherever that location is, comes the White House at Biloxi with the announcement that a contract is given for a 50-room addition.This is refreshing and sounds a reassuring keynote for our American Riviera so fast coming into its own.
The White House is one of the popular hotels on the Coast, getting its inceptancy from a small beginning and growing to proportions and popularity to make it one of the outstanding hostilities on the entire Coast strand dotted with hotels of more than passing magnificence.This Week.*Farmers and Organization*Real Money.*Throw Out Ambition.*Sounds In Movies.*BY ARTHUR BRISBANE.

Flour manufacturers, including Washburn-Crosby and Red Star organized a $50,000,000 combination, largest flour milling concern in the world.That's in the line of modern methods, big units, small overhead, powerful marketing.This news will interest farmers and make them wish somebody could show them how to organize. The first thing, and absolutely necessary, is to organize and intensify methods of production. An old-fashioned blacksmith could not compete with a modern automobile factory.Childish talk of "necessary competition" and prattle about keeping business from getting "too big" are out of date.Where nations combine to monopolize world business, great American units must combine for self defense.
Possibly some one will find a way to help our farmers form such a combination. They need it.The French settle down courageously to the drastic new money rate.
Four-fifths of its value is cut from their money as a result of a war WHICH THEY WON. They face that situation bravely.In place of paper money meaning little to peasants and working people, the French again will see gold and silver coins in circulation.The grosse piece, size and weight of our silver dollar, will not come back. Worth five francs before the war, it would be worth twenty-five pieces worth fifty cents will be coined, and the French will feel that they are working for REAL MONEY.Stabilizing the franc is a boon to all Europe, ending financial disorder that has lasted ten years.It is a great achievement by Poincare, worthy successor of Thiers, Turgot, Neckar, Sully and a long list of brilliant French statesmen.scholars no to try for "greatness."
The advice was humorous, probably.
Trying for greatness produces desirable mediocrity. Men "aim high to shoot low" as the illiterate colored man said when he asked Grover Cleveland to make him Librarian of Congress. He really wanted a job as porter.A baby cries for the moon and is satisfied with a cookie. Youth reaches for greatness and is content with modest achievement and a place on the golf course.Winfield R. Sheehan, who knows about moving pictures, says screens will be much bigger for large sized theatres now building everywhere.
That will make it necessary to revise production methods.Most important for budding genius, he says the "talking movie" will create a new army of scenario writers, knowing how to make sound effective in pictures.In a detective story, noise of a creaking board, or a shot, might be more effective than the hero's smile.
Mr. Sheehan believes that the pictures with sound will double moving picture attendance.In New York's brutal dancing contest—the dance to go on until all but one couple drop—the female dancers, nervously exhausted, slap their parners faces. Then the men slap the women's faces vigorously. The ya-hoos, called "fans," looking on shriek with delight, as the half crazed dancers strike each other.Such is our poor imitation of the Roman arena.Little EchoesNobile believes Italia burned; one

COAST RESIDENT SERVING STATE AS GOVERNOR.

LT. GOVERNOR BIDWELL ADAM.

A buck private in the World War, a successful young lawyer, a former newspaper boy in the streets of his home town, a brilliant presiding officer as Lieutenant-Governor in the state legislature—such are the high lights in the career of the man who has been Governor of Mississippi this week in the person of the Coast's own Bidwell Adam of Pass Christian, Lieutenant-Governor of the state. He ruled in the Governor's chair during the absence of Governor Theodore G. Bilbo, who was one of the speakers in New Orleans at the National Convention of Business and Professional Women's Clubs. This is the first time since his inauguration that Governor Bilbo has been outside the boundaries of Mississippi and there-

L. & N. CROSSING AT HENDERSON POINT
GETS SAFETY SIGNALDangerous Crossing Over O.
S. T. Equipped With Light and Bell Warnings

Warning to approaching motorists will be given by two new flashing signals now being installed at the L. & N. railroad crossing of the Old Spanish Trail just east of the Bay of St. Louis bridge. Two signals are being constructed, one to the north and one to the south of the railroad. The work of construction of the signals is being handled by a crew of men directed by O. R. Bragg, assistant signal supervisor from Bay St. Louis.

These signals aside from showing a light warning the motorist that he is approaching a railroad will also ring a bell, the bell to begin ringing as the train is about 2,000 feet from the crossing.

The signals are of standard type, a concrete base holding the erect poles on top of which the lights will flash. Work on the signals began the first of this month and it is expected that they will be completed and in use by the latter part of this week.

PEARLINGTON'S HOME MAKERS' CLUB.

The Home Makers' Club met at the home of D. V. McCann. The meeting opened at 1 p. m., with a 100 per cent attendance and one new member enrolled. 25 glasses of plum and blackberry jelly and six jars of jam were made by club members.

The Home Demonstration Agent, Bessie Rainey, gave demonstrations in the canning of a fancy packed jar of beans and the making of caramel bisque ice cream.

After the work had been completed the hostess served very dainty ham sandwiches, salad and ice tea, followed by the ice cream which was demonstrated. Each member is very much interested in the activities of the club, and is happy to attend the weekly meetings.

Mississippi
Brevities

DON QUIXOTE II—

Down an aisle of the Democratic convention hall at Houston jugged a donkey. Aboard was Mississippi's Homer Castell. "Whoa," ordered Homer. The donkey did. His passenger leaned forward, kissed his mount's ear, slipped to a nearby seat. Democrats guffawed.

INDEED THEY BITE—

Some folks say snakes won't bite in water because they fear strangulation. A. Davis, Seminary, knows better. In swimming last week, Davis dodged in vain as a moccasin chased him, struck at him, bit him. Anti-toxin undid the damage done by the poison.

INTO CEMETERY—

Boots Barner, one of Greenwood's fledgling flyers, zoomed heavenward, decided, decided to rise again. He rose, but not high enough to miss telephone wires, a house, and a crash into a nearby Orthodox Jewish cemetery. The plane was demolished, Boots not quite.

WANTED HIS WIFE—

Officers blocked a road leading north from Hernando. Along came tearing A. M. Nuckolls, kidnaper. Desperate, he steered his car across a ditch, into a field, back into the road behind the blockade, escaped. Captured later, he confessed to kidnapping his wife, from whom he had been separated.

CRANKY CALENDAR—

Using an out-of-date almanac for a calendar, George Golden, near Hernando, has been sleeping on Saturday, doing week-day work on Sunday. Advised of his error, Golden took both Saturday and Sunday off last week, got straight.

POLITICAL FIGHT—

Ben G. Duke and Charles McDonald, McNeil, argued over Al Smith. Angry, they mentioned Woodrow Wilson, argued more. Duke grabbed a brick, lammed his opponent on the head. McDonald ducked, drew his knife, stuck it into Duke's chest. Injuries to both were serious.

HEN'S FAULT—

A Rhode Island hen cackled unconcernedly in Gulfport last week as her master was made defendant in a $2,500 suit the feathered pet had caused. Norman Rogers accused Miss Jewel Roberts of stealing his hen. Miss Roberts charged Rogers with malicious prosecution, sued for $2,500.

FUNNY FISH—

Webb Bass, Bunker Hill, liked sardines. At the bottom of a box last week he found two fragments too round to be fish. Offered to his dog, the round pieces were refused. Suddenly taken sick, Mr. Bass swore his can had contained snakes.

FIVE-STATE FIGHT—

Few things make men more miserable than marsh mosquitoes. Fighting for freedom from mosquitoes, representatives of five Coast states will meet in Biloxi shortly, hold councils, lay plans, pledge co-operation in a joint campaign.

CLOSE CALL—

E. R. Screws' hair blew and his pants whipped in the wind as he rode the running board of his auto in Holly Bluff last week. Another car approached, came close, whipped past, left Screws sprawling in the road, one arm and one leg fractured.

900 NEEDLES—

Doctors stick needles into 900 Coahoma countians in one week recently, squirted vaccine into their arms. A record for vaccination in the county, it lulled excitement which was arising over typhoid fever possibilities.

LOCK UP LEON—

Two Clarksdale boys, on their way home Wednesday night, spied a suspicious figure slinking from a neighbor's porch. Following the prowler, they overpowered him, took the knife with which he fought, found him to be Leon Montgomery, biggity negro who has the distinction of being the only prisoner to attempt to break jail in Clarksdale in five years.

FORGETS—

W. F. Walker Friday laid bricks at West Point. Saturday he felt bad, temporarily lost his memory. Wand'ring blankly, he boarded a box car, walked off the top, was seriously skinned and bruised.

BETS HATS—

So sold on poultry possibilities is one Clay county enthusiast that he has published an offer of a Stetson hat to any farmer in his county who is unable to make $1.50 net profit per hen in one year. The only requirements made are conscientious effort and compliance with approved poultry methods.

FINDS THE BLIND—

A blind man is efficiently finding other blind men over the state as Jesse Adams, totally blind state senator, brings to light scores of undiscovered cases which will be cared for in future by state funds.

Long grass is welcome in pastures and hay fields. Not so on city streets. To keep its ditches clear and its boulevards beautiful, Lexington is staging its annual anti-grass battle. W. A. Rathell is captain of the clean-up crew.

Fists were let fly and jaws were thumped in Houston last week as Mississippi delegates defended their standards against shouting supporters of Smith, who attempted to force them into a pre-ballot demonstration.

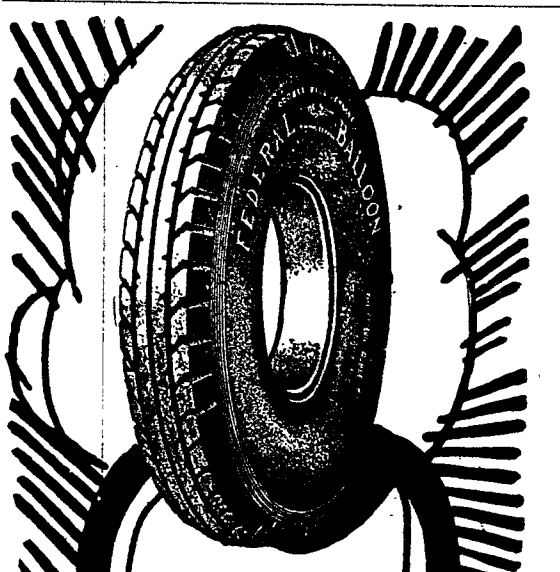

Hard Days Ahead. The corn borer would do well to get a gas mask. Congress threw a $7,000,000 appropriation at him.—Indianapolis Journal.

SORE
Could Not Rest

Mrs. J. H. Nichols, who lives at 513 Elm Tree Lane, Lexington, Ky., says:

"Some few years ago, my health was bad. I had very severe pains in my sides. My nerves were in a terrible condition. I could not rest."

"The lower part of my body was very sore. I did not feel like eating, and did not sleep well at all at nights."

"A friend of mine recommended Cardui. I began taking it and saw quite an improvement in my condition. I kept it up until I felt strong and well."

About a year ago, Mrs. Nichols says, she found herself in a nervous, run-down condition. "I took Cardui again," she adds, "and it helped me wonderfully. It is a splendid tonic."

Cardui is a mild, medicinal tonic, made from purely vegetable ingredients.

KNOW Your South and be a Partner in its Growth...

Atlanta Distributing Center of the South with its residence and industrial suburbs has about 300,000 inhabitants. It combines the charm of the old South with the vigor and enterprise of the new. Though considered the center of the southeast, Atlanta really is west of Detroit. It is more than 1,000 ft. above sea level, the highest large city east of Denver.

Atlanta is the great distributing point of the Southeast, and the headquarters of several hundred corporations. It is the home of the Georgia School of Technology, Emory University, Georgia College, and several other institutions of higher learning. For the past 18 years, each spring the Metropolitan Grand Open Air Show is presented in Atlanta a week of opera, complete in every way, with 7 performances each season. Atlanta is the great golf center of the South, with 9 golf courses, including East Lake and Druid Hills, where Bobby Jones learned the game.

The residential suburbs of Atlanta, stretching far out the well paved roads to the great country estates, are among the most beautiful in America. Stone Mountain, the great granite monolith upon which is being carved the world's most gigantic group of statuary, a memorial to the Confederate Soldier, is 16 miles from Atlanta.

Every winter, more and more tourists are breaking the journey to Florida by a stay in Atlanta, whose climate offers a happy medium between that of the far south and the north.

What the "OLD RELIABLE" means to ATLANTA

The L. & N. R. R. has played an important role in the development of the Atlanta territory since its lines entered Atlanta nearly 25 years ago.

It now operates 216 miles of its lines in the State and an average of ten passenger and fourteen freight trains serve Atlanta daily.

Of the produce delivered to Atlanta proper, 97% is handled from L. & N. R. R. trains through its large produce building which is one of the largest of its kind in the country and houses practically all of the city's produce dealers.

The L. & N. R. R. pays directly and pays the payment of salaries of about 1,400 citizens of Atlanta whose wages paid salaries total nearly $1,000,000 annually.

THE OLD RELIABLE

L. & N. R. R.

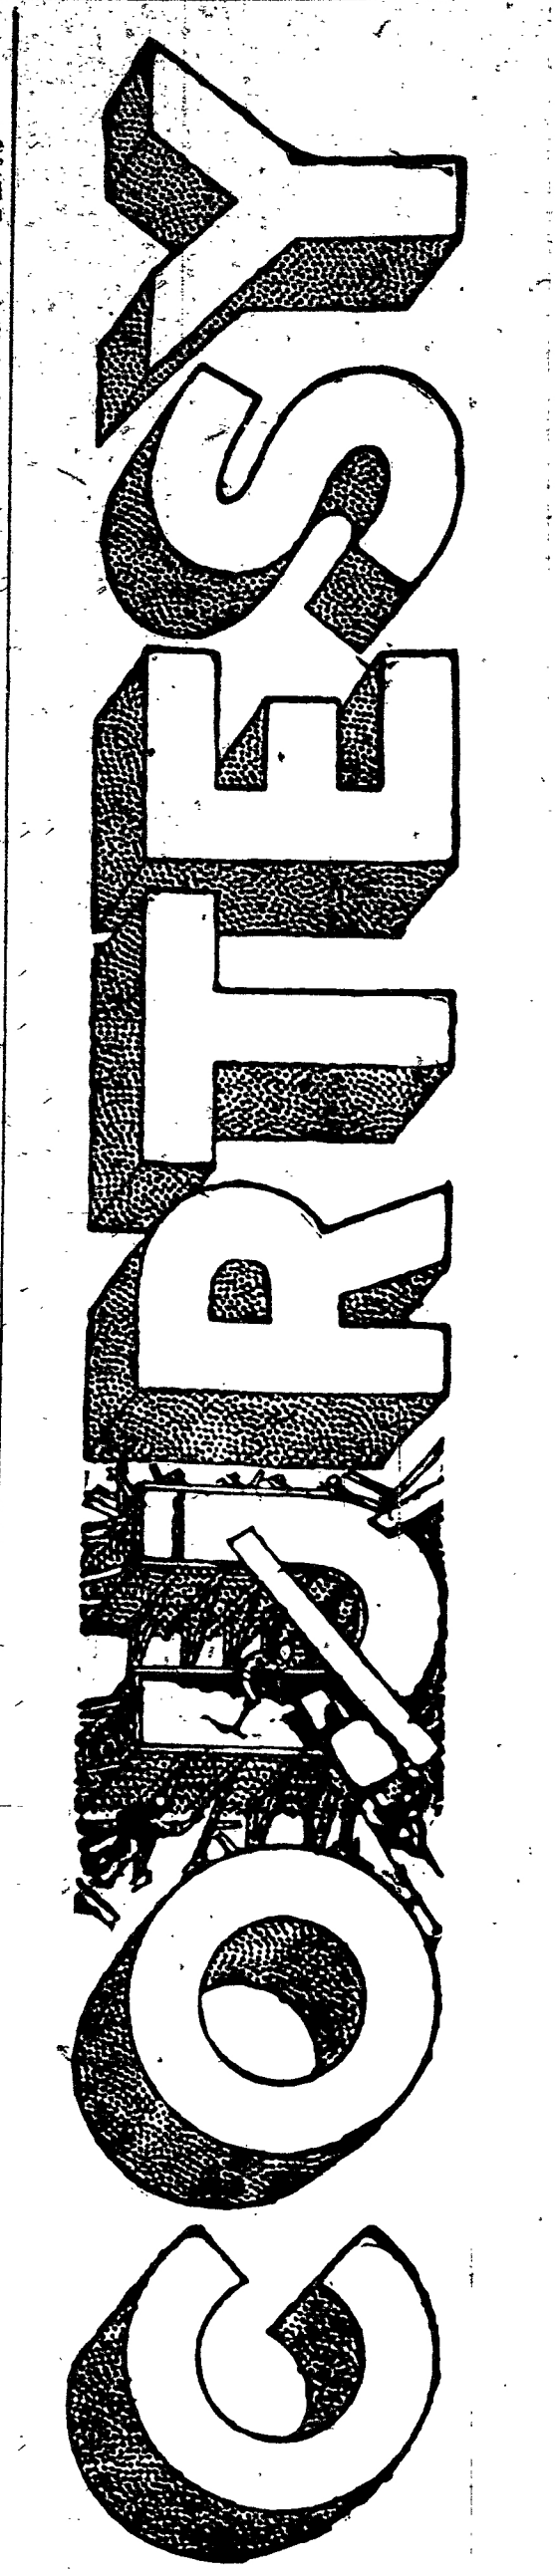

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, County of Hancock.

Mirrors of Mississippi
By Edgar S. Wilson

Jackson, Miss., July 11.—Mississippi was unique at the Houston national Democratic convention which nominated Alfred E. Smith of New York for president and Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas for vice-president. The chairman of the committee on resolutions which reported the platform—which was adopted without change or challenge—was Senator Key Pittman of Nevada. Senator Pittman is a native Mississippian, he was born in Vicksburg, being the son of A. B. Pittman, an eminent lawyer of that city some forty years ago.

Mississippi had two national committeemen on the platform at Houston. These were Mrs. Daisy McLaurin Stevens of Mississippi, and Mrs. Lorraine McLaurin Watts of Virginia. Both were daughters of the lamented Anselm Joseph McLaurin, the first native United States Senator from Mississippi, and the only native Mississippian who has ever been both governor and United States Senator. Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Watts inherit the political genius of their gifted father. The ywere highly complimented by the national Democratic committeemen and committeewomen from other states for their wise and helpful counsel.

In this connection it may be well to state that there were three McLaurin brothers in the Mississippi constitutional convention of 1890—Anselm Joseph McLaurin of Rankin, Dr. Albert Gallatin McLaurin of Smith and State Senator H. J. McLaurin of Sharkey. I met a number of distinguished Mississippians from other states at the Houston convention. Among them was Dr. J. C. Hardy, who headed the Texas delegation in the Houston convention. Dr. Hardy was formerly state superintendent of public schools in Jackson and later president of the A. & M. College of Mississippi. He has been president of Baylor College for women at Baylor, Texas, for seventeen years and has achieved deserved success.

Last year Baylor College had fourteen girls from foreign countries, and fifty girls from twenty-five states other than Texas; and more than two thousand from more than two hundred counties in the Lone Star State, thus giving that institution the most widely distributed student body of any college for women in the United States. Baylor College is the second largest college for women in the United States. The first college is Bryn Mawr in Massachusetts, having enrolled last year three thousand six hundred students, and the enrollment of Baylor College was two thousand two hundred sixty nine. The removal of Jack Hardy, as he is affectionately called by his friends throughout the length and breadth of Mississippi, who loved him for his worth to Texas, was Mississippi's loss and Texas' gain.

The only money ever appropriated out of the state treasury to erect a monument of honor to any man was that voted by a mongrel legislature during reconstruction to James Lynch, a mulatto carpetbagger. The amount was $1000 and a marble shaft some twelve or fifteen feet high, with a medallion of Lynch, stands in the Greenwood cemetery in sight of the million dollar new capitol building. Lynch came to Mississippi from Pennsylvania as a missionary, broke into politics and was elected Secretary of State. Those who have heard him say that he was a most eloquent speaker, and could sway a negro multitude playing upon their passions and prejudices like a flute. His conscientiousness is said to have hastened his death.

There stands in the court yard of Fayette, Jefferson county, Mississippi, a monument erected by legislative enactment to Adam Rum. Rum died without heirs and his estate of $1500 escheated to the commonwealth. The Mississippi legislature appropriated $500 of this $1500 to the erection of his monument. The $1000 appropriation for the Lynch monument by a mongrel legislature and approval by Ames, the carpetbag governor, came out of the treasury, having been put there by the white taxpayers of Mississippi.

Under the provision of the constitution of 1890 applications for pardons must publish petitions for pardons, setting forth the reasons for such pardons, in a paper in the county in which the crime was committed, and if no such paper be published in that county, then in a paper published in an adjoining county. It means that thirty days must elapse between the first and last publication.

It is reported that the fairs throughout the state a swell as the fair here at the capital, will be better this fall than ever known in their history.

ALL the world swims
in Jantzens

THROUGHOUT North and South America and at the pools and shores of other lands, Jantzens are notably popular with folks who swim.

Indeed, "swimming's the thing" these days almost everywhere. And it's so much easier to swim in a Jantzen... warm, snug, flexible. You'll marvel at the matchless... wrinkleless fit.

Jantzen material, consisting entirely of long-fibred wool, is tightly knitted by a process called Jantzen-stitch. It is extremely elastic.

And Jantzen's system of sizing by weight assures you the right size to start with. We have all the popular colors and styles in every size. And being dyed-in-the-wool, they're color-fast.

Women's Jantzens.....$6.00

Hint's Home

It is interesting to know that modern preserving methods have eliminated the chance for failure in making jellies and jams.

Under the old long-boiling process even experienced cooks would get fine, firm jelly one time and a syrupy failure the next. The ripper the fruit the less jelly making substance is contained, so no accurate rule could be made to govern the exact amount of sugar or cooking time.

The new short-process rules remove this uncertainty by the use of liquid pectin, which is the natural jelly making substance extracted from fruits and concentrated for cooking purposes.

New Recipe for Blueberry Jam

Crush well about two pounds of berries. Add juice of two lemons and grated rind of half lemon. Measure four level cups of mixture into large kettle. Add eight level cups sugar and mix well. Use hottest fire and stir constantly. Boil while boiling. Bring to full rolling boil and boil hard for one minute. Remove and stir in one bottle liquid pectin. Skim, pour quickly and cover at once with hot melted paraffin.

When Frying Corn Fritters

Many cooks know only one way to fry corn fritters and that is to drop the batter from a spoon into deep hot fat. If fried as a flat fritter cake in butter or margarine, the corn fritters will have a decidedly different flavor—one you may like much better than that produced by the other method.

Sour Cream Cake

Half cup butter, two cups sugar, one cup sour cream, three cups prepared cake flour, three eggs well beaten, half teaspoonful soda, scant teaspoon lemon flavoring. Cream butter and sugar, add eggs. Add soda or sour cream; beat cream and flour alternately into sugar mixture. Add flavoring and bake in loaf pan.

Can You Make Uncooked Custard?
Into beaten egg yolk of one egg stir a cup of sweetened condensed milk; add two teaspoons lemon juice and mixture will thicken. Then add three teaspoons water and fold in stiffly beaten white of egg. Serve as uncooked custard or pour over fresh fruit.

Shield Furniture From Summer Sun
If you would retain the soft glossy finish of your furniture do not allow the hot summer sun to beat upon it. Mahogany is especially in need of protection, as strong sun fades it.

Straws for Motor Trips
Someone suggests that we take a supply of straws on the long motor trip so a comfortable drink can be had at small springs and brooks.

When Hanging Curtains
Cap the curtain rod with a thin-ble and it will push through the curtain heading without catching or endangering the fabric.

Do Your Waffles Stick?
A little olive oil added to the waffle will prevent the waffles from sticking to the iron—and also adds richness to the finished cake.

Try This on the Rats
Chloride of lime put down the holes of rats and stored where ever they are likely to appear is an infallible preventative.

COMBATING TROUBLESOME ANTS.

A heavy chalk mark drawn a finger's distance from your sugar box and around containers for bread and cake will keep the ants away.

WHEN BAKING PEPPERS
To keep peppers whole when baking, place them in buttered muffin tins, and when ready for serving, remove with the aid of two large spoons.

When Making Berry Jams
To prevent jam from hardening when making berry jam observe these rules: Use only fresh fruit. Wash it first, then hull, put in a kettle on a slow fire until it boils, then add the sugar (beet or cane), and boil briskly. Cook only a small amount of fruit at a time and stir constantly. When the jam thickens when dropped on a cold plate, it is done.

SAVES TIME IN SEWING.
Let the children thread a package of needles on the loose ends of your spool of thread and fasten the thread under the notch in the spool. Then you will have a dozen threaded needles to use when sewing.

A Tid Bit for the Children's Lunch
Do not stand left-over berries and cut fruits away in the refrigerator where they will become mushy and unpalatable, but turn them into a tempting dessert for the children by dropping them into a mold and covering with flavored gelatin that has been dissolved in hot water and cooled. It takes but a moment, and seems a great treat to little folks.

When Eating Fish, Remember
If a fish bone becomes lodged in the throat, a raw egg swallowed immediately after will carry the bone away.

A Novel Polish for Patent Shoes
Sweet milk is said to be as good as the best shoe cream for enameled shoes. Remove dust and dirt from the shoes then wash them with milk and after a few minutes wipe off with a soft dry cloth.

Easy to Remember Rite Burns
If equal parts of white of egg and olive oil mixed are applied at once to a burn and the spot covered with a piece of old linen, no blister will form.

Kills Smell of Paint
To rid a freshly painted room of the odor of paint, put a pan of water in the room and change it every few hours. A slight onion or lemon added to the water will accomplish the result more quickly.

(By Our Staff Correspondent)

The annual tournament of the Pass Christian Yacht Club, Tarpon Club, opened auspiciously on the morning of July 4, when a number of boats left the Pass Christian Yacht Club in search of the finny tribe. Among those participating in the first day's fishing were Ernest and Joseph Gump of New Orleans aboard their yacht, Celia, with a party of twenty friends; J. C. LeBourgeois of New Orleans took a party to the tarpon hole in his yacht, Carlotta. Capt. John T. McDonald of Pass Christian carried a party of sixteen from Picayune on his boat the Three Brothers. The Caelhela owned by Manuel Spurl was taken out by him with several sportsmen. Former Governor John M. Parker with a party of friends went out on the Manatee. Br. A. R. Robertson of the Pass and Earl Batchelor of Gulfport went out aboard Dr. Robertson's boat, the Dixie Flyer. Dr. E. G. Simmons of New Orleans took a party out on his yacht, the Bing. C. B. Fox, aboard his boat, the Brenda, reported the sighting of the first tarpon at the tarpon hole. Other boats joined the fishers during the first day of the tournament.

The honor of the first catch of the silver king of the deep went to John M. Parker, Jr., of New Orleans, who captured a fish Sunday measuring five feet and weighing 60 pounds. This entitles him to one of the handsome trophies which is being offered in the tournament and which will be awarded at the close of the rodeo September 3.

The Democratic Executive Committee met Monday night at the Pass Christian City Hall for the purpose of closing the ticket for the forthcoming Democratic primary elections to be held July 24, with a second primary if necessary July 31.

Twenty candidates seek election for the office of mayor, marshal, alderman at large, alderman for each of the four wards of the city, and tax collector. Candidates for mayor are J. H. Spence, incumbent, A. P. Saucier and E. F. Bourdin; for marshal Robert Peralta, Herman Finoli, and Leo McEneaney; for alderman at large, Donald Demetz and Stanley Taylor; for alderman for the first ward, John Donlin, George Cronovich, and Herbert H. Hanson; for alderman for the second ward, William P. Hursey, P. A. McCollier, and William T. Woods; for alderman for the third ward, Eugene Peralta, John D. Northrop, and W. Allen Barksdale; for alderman for the fourth ward, James B. Smith and Joseph J. Wittman. If you would retain the soft glossy finish of your furniture do not allow the hot summer sun to beat upon it. Mahogany is especially in need of protection, as strong sun fades it.

The executive committee, composed of Frank P. Wittman, Sidney J. Saucier, R. V. Abbley, Sr., William K. Desporte and Vinson Smith, Sr., were all re-elected for the coming year.

YOUR GARDEN.

Keeping Cut Flowers

There is no great secret in the fact that so mefolks are able to keep cut flowers so much longer than others. It's simply in knowing how and any of you can do as well if you will just pay attention to a few little details.

In the first place most flowers seem to keep better if they are cut early in the morning before the dew is off their petals. They absorb moisture and vitality all night and when you cut them early they are full of it and will last much better. Then the sooner you get them into water the better they will be.

Another thing, plunge the stems deep in the water as they will absorb that much better. If you are cutting such hard-stemmed things as the Roses, Peonies, Chrysanthemums, and similar things, split the stems with a knife an inch or two up from the cut end. This will allow the water to be absorbed that much easier. After cutting flowers and placing them in water set them in a cool and preferably darkened place for a few hours. This may not always be possible but it will help if you will do it. In cutting always cut on an angle and cutting with a knife is considered better than with snips unless the snips are very sharp. Dull snips crush the stems and so prevent them from taking water freely.

Cut flowers should never stand in a draught. This will make them wilt much faster than where there is no draught. Neither should they stand in the sun.

Sometimes when you are given some flowers and are not able to get them into water till they have become apparently hopelessly wilted if you will try this it may help. Fill the vessel you are going to put them in with hot water, about as hot as you can stand having your hand in, and put your bouquet in this water. It will, many times, revive when it is changed to cool water. And don't forget to cut the stems every time when you bring flowers in from the garden.

Makes Good Catch of Fish.

Rev. J. J. Gilmore, Baptist pastor, an enthusiastic follower of Isaac Walton, proved his skill as fisherman with several fine catches of fish this week. Tuesday morning he landed a four-pound speckled trout in the waters of the Bay. Wednesday morning he was only able to secure 25 live shrimp and with these he caught 20 fish. Rev. Gilmore states that anglers for speckled trout must reach the fishing grounds of the Bay by daylight for the best results, as the large fish run at that time and only the smaller fish are out later in the day.

Entries are being made daily by tennis enthusiasts for the annual open coast tennis tourney to be held from July 21 to 29, under the auspices of the Pass Christian Tennis Association. The club has issued invitations for an increased membership and plans to make the tournament the largest yet held in Pass Christian. The officers of the Pass Christian club who are responsible for the enthusiasm being shown in the forthcoming tourney are Anna Louise Livengood, first vice-president; Miss Jane Northrop, second vice-president; and Miss Eunice Holliman, secretary and treasurer. Anyone interested will be eligible to enter the tournament, men and women for singles and doubles, and mixed doubles, the state rules to prevail. Registration will be allowed until June 20 at 6 p. m., and drawings for positions will be held at 8 o'clock that night at the Miramar Hotel. Matches may be played at any court on the Coast, provided they are played before an official referee. The finals will be held on the Hotel Miramar court on July 29. One of the main aspirations of the Pass Christian club is to bid for the open state tourney which will be held for the state championships at Greenwood next year, and bring it to Pass Christian in 1930. One of the requirements of the state is to have at least four courts together so that all matches may be played off at one place, and the Pass Christian club plans to have the courts erected in the near future so that they may meet this requirement.

The Pass Christian Yacht Club held its final meeting preceding the twenty-first annual regatta Monday night at the city hall, with sixty members present, and Commodore L. H. Barksdale, president. Plans were completed for the two days racing events, to be held Thursday and Friday, July 12 and 13, on the fifteen mile course in front of Pass Christian. The program set for Thursday included outboard motor boat races of all classes, cat boats two classes, under 16 feet and 16 feet and over, speed boats two classes, under 40 miles per hour, and 40 miles and over. The feature race will be the Gulf Annual Schooner championship, with cash awards offered the winner. Six entries will participate this year. I. Heidenheim, Julia Delacruz, H. B. Gumbel, Anna E. Foster and Sarah Ford. In the other classes a number of entries have been made, with the largest representation from the Southern Yacht Club, New Orleans. An orchestra has been engaged in New Orleans which will play at the Yacht Club both afternoons, with a dance to be held on Thursday and Friday nights. At the dance Friday night all trophies will be awarded.

COMMENT ON SPORTS

In just about two weeks Champi on Gene Tunney will be crawling through the ropes to defend his title from the murderous assault of Australian Tom Heehey. The Yankee Stadium, at New York, will stage the fight and Tex Rickard moderately predicts that the melee will be a financial success. To date, there has failed to develop that furious suspense that ring partisans know so well before the fights their favorites are in and a financial flop may be looked for.

Rickard, getting confidential with the public, advises that all he has to take in at the gate, to pay all expenses is $685,000 and admits that he expects the public to pay $1,500,000 for the privilege of seeing the bout. So, in spite of the high prices demanded by the boxer, the promoter of heavy-weight bouts seems fairly remunerative if there's the rub, if the public gets worked up over the rival pugilists. For the looming offering the public seems quiet, uninterested and giving the whole works the glance familiarly described as it don't-mean-anything-to-me.

Regarding the approaching bout from the standpoint of the principals the verdict of this writer is that Heehey has only one chance to win, that is by a knockout, before the eleventh round begins. Tunney will win on points and the champion may win almost any time by a knockout, although this is not probable during the first ten rounds.

Tunney will outpoint Heehey and wrestle him to exhaustion, if the referee lets the champion hang on to the challenger's arm. Tunney is a holder from the word go. He will tie up his adversary and beat down with his weight. He did it repeatedly in the Dempsey bouts and he is strong enough to do it against Heehey, whose rushes will have only a fleeting chance to land a swinging blow before the arms of the challenger will be firmly held by the champion.

Moreover, elucidating our prediction that Heehey has a chance to win only before the eleventh round the champion will pick at his eyes and continue to smear them until Heehey, like Dempsey, will be suffering for lack of vision after ten rounds. Or, maybe, we miss our guess; anyway, we have said what we think of the bout.

Reverting to baseball, the Yankees have a strange hold on first place and even the rabid supporters of the Athletics must give up hope.

Against other teams the Athletics are the stuff, equal to the Yankees week, but once to against the battering of Ruppert's aggregation the Philadelphiaans are simply out. At least two thirds of the twelve game lead enjoyed by the Huggins outfit has been acquired by the simple method of beating the challenging Athletics to death, winning thirteen out of eighteen games between the two teams.

SHERIFF JONES MAKES SUNDAY RAID OF MOONSHINE ON O.S.T.

Gets Over Fifteen Pints of Illicit Stuff—Accused Found Guilty of Charge

Fifteen and a half pints of moonshine whiskey was confiscated by Sheriff J. C. Jones, assisted by deputies Albert Favre and I. T. W. Mitchell Sunday at the home of Mike Rogers on the Old Spanish Trail in Bay St. Louis, one mile from the Court house. Mike Rogers was arrested, pled guilty, was tried before Justice of the Peace Frank Gutierrez and is to be sentenced July 18.

The Sheriff found this whiskey after a diligent search, it being the second time the house had been raided, the first visit proving fruitless. The Sheriff stated that he had about given up hope of finding any liquor but decided to make another search before leaving the house and this time he found a drop door in the ceiling behind which, in built-in shelves the bottles were arranged.

County Officers Show Civic Example.

Clerk of the Courts, A. G. Favre and Deputy Sheriff Joseph V. Bon Temps show an exemplary spirit in the attractive appearances of their respective dwellings out Main st., where they are neighbors. Well kept lawns, beautiful gardens and out-houses, to say nothing of the homes, well show a spirit that goes to make the city and well worthy of following. There are other well-kept premises in the city, but these two, adjoining that of Judge Breath, one hint to the other fellow who would add value both to individual property and the city at large.

BOOSTER TRAIN LEAVES JACKSON ON AUGUST SIXTH Know Mississippi Better Tour to Lead to Canada and State of Washington

The fourth annual pilgrimage of the Know Mississippi Better Train will get under way August 6 with former Governor Dennis Murphree heading the party of more than 200 of the state's boosters.

Having as its main objective the influencing of capital into Mississippi and the advertising of the state to other parts of the Union, the train this year will head northward as far as Canada and the state of Washington, making countless stops between destinations.

Workers are busily engaged in fixing the exhibition cars in which many thousands of spectators who visit the trail along its route will get glimpses of "what's going on in the Magnolia State."

A miniature picture show will afford an opportunity for the boosters to rest from their oral boosting and permit the visitors to see for themselves what Mississippi has to offer the prospective citizen.

The same arrangements made for the other trips will be in effect for this year's jaunt. An advance agent will travel just ahead of the train, making proper arrangements at the designated stops.

Heads of several state departments county agents and citizens and newspapermen will make the trip which winds up in Jackson August 23.

Governor Theodore G. Bilbo will not make the trip, he announced.

Removing Two Submarine Cables to Be Replaced By One—Crew From Atlanta

The American Bell Telephone Company and the Southern Bell Telephone Company are cooperating in the removal of the two submarine cables which carry their lines across the draw bridge of the L. & N. railroad bridge over the Bay of St. Louis and are having one large cable suitable to carry the lines of both companies installed.

A construction crew from Atlanta from the American Telephone Company has been engaged for the past two weeks in laying the new cable and will probably complete its work this week, when a cable crew from the Southern Telephone Company from Jackson will make the final connections, preparing the cable for use.

The Two Prohibition Planks

Following is a comparison of the attitudes of the Democratic and Republican parties, respectively, toward the prohibition question as expressed in their campaign platforms:

DEMOCRATIC

The Republican party for eight years in complete control of the government at Washington presents the remarkable spectacle of feeling compelled in its national platform to promise obedience to a provision of the federal constitution which it has flagrantly disregarded, and to apologize to the country for its failure to enforce laws enacted by the Congress of the United States.

Speaking for the national Democracy this convention pledges the party and its nominees for an honest effort to enforce the Eighteenth Amendment and all other provisions of the federal Constitution and all laws enacted pursuant thereto.

REPUBLICAN

We reaffirm the American constitutional doctrine as announced by George Washington in his "Farewell Address," to-wit:

"The constitution which at any time exists until changed by the explicit and authentic act of the whole people is sacredly obligatory upon all."

We also reaffirm the attitude of the American people toward the federal Constitution as declared by Abraham Lincoln.

"We are by both duty and inclination bound to stick by that Constitution in its letter and spirit from beginning to end. I am for the honest enforcement of the Constitution. Our safety, our liberty, depends upon preserving the Constitution of the United States, as our forefathers made it, inviolate."

The people through the method provided by the Constitution have written the Eighteenth Amendment into the Constitution. The Republic pledges itself and its nominees to the observance and vigorous enforcement of this provision of the Constitution.

Give a sentence with the word Fiscal.

I owe my bust to fiscal culture.

"Let's run off and get separated."
"It would be awfully romantic, dear, but mother'd feel dreadfully hurt if I didn't get a regular court ship she'd."

Amazing.
Stella—Maisie's quite an adept at polite conversation.

Stella—How's that?

Stella—She talks without saying anything and doesn't mean what she says.

Blank—She does all the talking in our family. Say, if I were suddenly stricken deaf and dumb it would probably be six or eight weeks before she'd find it out.

Sentry—Halt! Who goes there? Rookie—Nobody.

Sentry—Are you alone?

"Do you know anything about farming?"

"Well, I know how to complain about the weather."

Hancock County Has 1960 Autos.

A total of 1960 autos are registered in Hancock county according to figures supplied by Chief Deputy Sheriff J. Bontemps who is occupied in indexing the autos for the supervisors to use in their assessment check of personal property in the county. This indexing has taken constant work on the part of Mr. Bontemps for nine days and it was completed early this week.

HAZEL WILLIAMS AT KILN MEETS DEATH UNDER AUTOMOBILE

Seven-Year-Old Daughter Oliver Williams Victim—Car Driven by B. Hyde

Hazel Williams, seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Williams of Kiln, was killed Sunday morning about 8:30 o'clock by an auto driven by Brame Hyde, Poplarville merchant, who after striking the child drove on to Poplarville without stopping his car. A number of Kiln citizens witnessed the striking of the child and notified Sheriff J. C. Jones in Bay St. Louis, who motored to Poplarville, arriving before Mr. Hyde, and arresting him. Mr. Hyde, Sheriff Jones, and he was later released on $10,000 bond furnished by members of his family.

Mr. Hyde stated to Sheriff Jones that he did not know that he had killed the child and did not know that he had struck anyone, that he saw a hat in front of his car but thought that some of the children on the roadside had thrown it in the path of his car.

A hearing was to have been held before Justice of the Peace A. F. Fente of Kiln Tuesday but was delayed until later because the mother of the child was not yet able to come into court.

The body of the dead child was buried at Kiln Monday.

Business Notice.

On the first of the month hundreds of statements showing amounts due by subscribers to The Sea Coast Echo were mailed, and while many have promptly responded, there are yet many who have failed to do so.

The heavy increased cost of production has again been augmented by the postage rate, since the city of Bay St. Louis has free delivery. Every copy of The Echo carries a fraction of increased postage for delivery, and it will be impossible to carry this burden unless subscribers remit.

As much as we regretted, it will be necessary, beginning with next week, to drop the names of all delinquents from our mail list.

NEW FACES TO SHOW AT A. & G. THURSDAY NIGHT

Molly O'Day and John Boles Head Cast in "Shepherd of Hills" Classic.

A new romantic combination comes to the screen in First National Pictures' big screen version of Harold Bell Wright's classic, "The Shepherd of Hills."

In the picture, which is to head the bill at the A. & G. on next Thursday night, July 26th., the lovers are Molly O'Day and John Boles. Miss O'Day recently played opposite Richard Bar. and opposite Milton Sills in "Hard-Boiled Haggerty." Boles was leading man in Gloria Swanson's "The Lovers of Sunya."

They make a striking pair of lovers and their appearance together in "The Shepherd of Hills" may lead to other pictures in which they carry the burden of romance. With them in the cast of the picture are such notable players as Alec B. Francis, Matthew Betz, Romaine Fielding, Otis Harlan, Joseph Bennett, Maurice Murphy and Carl Stockdale.

Another pleasing love affair figures in the dramatic plot of "The Shepherd of Hills" is enacted between another pair of newcomers, Marion Douglas and John Westwood. Miss Douglas is a strikingly beautiful blonde and Westwood, tall, athletic and handsome, was a Princeton youth selected by screen test in a complete canvass of the universities for actors, conducted by First National Pictures.

A GOOD RECOMMENDATION.

A young man applied for a position in a large store in a big city. He was a stranger. Could give no reference except back in the little country town he came from.

Asked: "Why he came to the city," replied: "He saved his money and just came."

He produced his bank book SHOWING REGULAR DEPOSITS each pay—and he got the job.
